

CYPRUS GOVERNMENT RAILWAY.

3 OF 1906.

TO MAKE DUE PROVISION FOR THE MANAGEMENT AND REGULATION OF THE CYPRUS GOVERNMENT RAILWAY.

C. A. KING-HARMAN.]

[March 22, 1906.

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Cyprus Government Railway Law, 1906.

Power of High Commissioner to make regulations and to impose penalties.

2. The High Commissioner in Council may make regulations for the management and due and profitable working of the Cyprus Government Railway, and for the safety and comfort of the persons travelling or employed thereon, or otherwise using the said Railway or the premises belonging thereto or occupied therewith, and may prescribe penalties for the breach thereof. Provided that the penalty prescribed for the breach of any regulation shall not exceed a fine of two pounds:

Provided also that the High Commissioner in Council may at any time hereafter by regulations prescribe imprisonment for the breach of any such regulation for a term not exceeding one month, but any regulation prescribing imprisonment as aforesaid shall be previously laid before and approved by the Legislative Council in Session.

Publication of regulations.

3. Such regulations shall be published in the Cyprus Gazette, and from the date of such publication shall have the same force as if they were incorporated in this Law.

Power of High Commissioner to give police powers to railway officials.

4. The High Commissioner may from time to time by writing under his hand authorize any person or persons employed in the service of the Cyprus Government Railway, while actually performing the duties of and incident to such employment, to have and to exercise all such powers, authorities, protections, and privileges as belong to a constable, as defined by clause 3 of the Cyprus Courts of Justice Order, 1882.