

No. 19 OF 1930.

TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE ADULTERATION
OF CYPRUS PRODUCE.

A.D. 1930.

19 of 1930.

RONALD STORRS.]

[May 13, 1930.]

BE it enacted :—

1. This Law may be cited as the Adulteration of Produce Law, 1930, and shall be read as one with the Adulteration of Produce Law, 1926, (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Law), and the principal Law and this Law may together be cited as the Adulteration of Produce Laws, 1926 and 1930.

Short title.

2. The following section shall be substituted for section 6 of the principal Law :—

Amendment of section 6 of principal Law.

“6. Any officer acting on behalf of the Director of Agriculture or any peace officer may examine any produce intended or exposed for sale, and if he suspects such produce to have been adulterated contrary to the provisions of this Law may take a sample thereof for the purpose of further examination and, if necessary, for the purpose of submitting the same for analysis: Provided that if such sample is taken for the purpose of submitting the same for analysis, the said officer or peace officer shall divide such sample into three portions and shall proceed in accordance with the procedure with regard to submission for analysis in section 5 (2) hereof mentioned.”

Power to examine produce and take sample.

3. The following section shall be substituted for section 7 of the principal Law :—

Amendment of section 7 of principal Law.

“7. Any person who refuses to allow any officer acting on behalf of the Director of Agriculture or any peace officer to examine any produce or take a sample of any produce as provided in section 6 hereof and any person who hinders or obstructs any such officer or peace officer or other person in the execution of any duty imposed upon him by this Law, shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.”

Penalty for refusal to allow officer to examine produce or take sample and for obstructing officer or other person.

This Law was published in the Cyprus Gazette No. 2057 of the 21st May, 1930.
